NEW CHURCH OFFERING COLLECTIONS PROCEDURE STARTING TODAY: “And Jesus went to the temple of God, ....and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers....” (Matthew 21:12) In the interests of having our weekly offerings be more pleasing to God, as well as to try and improve our bookkeeping accuracy, we will be starting a new procedure on Sunday, July 18, 2010 for the handling of collections. After the envelopes have been collected from our parishioners in the pews, we ask the two volunteers to then return to the front of the church and present our offerings to Mark and Wayne, who will place them in the altar area, to more symbolically represent that we are truly making our best offering to God. Following Liturgy, the Treasurer (Eva Jean Minto) and Collections Coordinator (Mary Ann Skero) will take the envelopes to the church office to count and verify the monies and prepare the deposit slip. NO COUNTING OF MONEY IS TO BE DONE DURING LITURGY AT THE CANDLE DESK. This decision was unanimously made by all the council members who attended last Sunday's Council Meeting. Your cooperation in this matter is deeply appreciated!

ALTAR & CENTER TABLE CANDLE DONATION: We want to thank the following Parishioner(s) for donating candles for the Altar & Center Table: Sunday, July 18: In Honor of Matt Rogos Birthday offered by Nicole Rogos.

BASEBALL GAME FALL 2010: Friday, September 17, 2010. National Anthem will be sung under the direction of Andy Tavlarovich of St. Nicholas Orthodox Church in Homestead. For every ticket sold, the Orthodox Clergy Brotherhood of Greater Pittsburgh Area will receive a percentage. The Clergy Brotherhood would like if each Orthodox Church to send at least 2-4 people or more from each choir to the rehearsals (INCLUDING PRIESTS!) so that we can have a wonderful turn-out for the Pirates Game. The first two rehearsals for the newly formed Greater Pittsburgh Area Pan Orthodox Choir will be held at St. Nicholas Orthodox Church, 903 Ann Street in Homestead. There is a parking lot behind the Church, and plenty of parking along Ann Street, and 9th Avenue. Once we have a committed group, the venue for the rehearsal may change after that, depending on the membership of the choir.

Sunday Rehearsal Schedule is at 2:30 p.m. on the following dates:

July 18 (National Anthem Rehearsal) -- St. Nicholas Church, 903 Ann Street, Homestead

August 15 (National Anthem Rehearsal & Preparation for a possible Nativity Concert or Sunday of Orthodoxy)

September 12 (National Anthem Rehearsal and Preparation for a possible Nativity Concert or Sunday of Orthodoxy.
